1. On instructions from the Shanghai branch of the Moscow Narodny Bank, the Shanghai Soviet Citizens' Trade Association will prepare a list of persons desiring to purchase shares and the number of shares desired in the "Five-Year Plan in Four Years". Shares in this project have been issued at a cost of 25, 50, and 100 rubles each (CNC dollars 5, 10, and 20 million). It is estimated that the Shanghai Soviet community will purchase 1,500,000 rubles worth of shares.
2. The Executive Committee of the Shanghai Soviet Citizens' Association (SCA) has approached the Shanghai branch of the Moscow Narodny Bank with a request for a loan of CNC $2,000,000,000, which the SCA promises to repay in one year. This money will be used to aid destitute members of the Mukden Soviet Community. The loan will be covered by voluntary contributions to be collected by the Soviet Women's Association, Shanghai. The Tientsin Soviet colony has already collected U.S. $1,000 for the starving Soviet residents of Mukden.
3. The Shanghai branch of the Moscow Narodny Bank received an order to purchase in checks U.S. $500,000, but was able to purchase only U.S. $120,000. Because of this, brokers S. Zelberg, B. Zata, M. Chernich and I. Shimkin were instructed to purchase large amounts of US currency in drafts, ordinary checks, or travelers checks.
4. Marden Development Company, representatives of Sovotorgflot (Soviet Ministry of the Merchant Fleet), recently sold forty bags of tungsten ore to Eksportkhleb in Hongkong. Each bag weighed five hundred pounds.
5. The SS KUIBYSHNEV, whose radio call sign is "U.U.R.TS.", arrived in Shanghai on 4 June 1948 with 8,000 tons of cargo.
6. A Soviet ship, with a name of five letters, left Vladivostok on 30 May 1948 for Shanghai with a cargo of 3,000,000 kilograms of undetermined cargo.
7. On 4 June 1948 the following cable was received by the Shanghai Torgpredstvo office from A. Arinichev (Shanghai Torgpredstvo director) in Bangkok: "Bought 10,000 tons of Siam rubber in Bangkok for 44.c. for USSR. Arinichev."
8. N. Kovalenko, Torgpredstvo employee, left Shanghai for Canton during the second week of June 1948.
